

License a cartoon for your presentation

Download PDF License form

The CartoonLink® Presentations Program

"Bill Cosby just told me my Christmas cards are the only ones he ever keeps. Your personalized cartoons are amazing!"

- Rick Dees
Syndicated Television and Radio Personality

The ability to make a powerful presentations can move mountains in your career, business and life. But how to you create one that is entertaining, memorable and persuasive? Cartoons can go a long way toward making that happen for your presentations.

Cartoons are almost always the best-read and remembered part of magazines and newspapers. People are drawn to cartoons in a big way. But cartoons aren't just the funny drawings most people think they are. Cartoons are actually little nuggets of truth revealed in a truly captivating way -- they plant points of agreement you can use to entertain your audience while persuading them. And your audience will be having so much fun, they won't even know you're doing it.

Including our personalized cartoons in your slides makes your presentation all the more outstanding, because it's targeted directly to members of your audience.

Buy it now

Drawing Attention by Stu Heinecke
Now available on iBooks, Kindle, Nook,
Sony Reader, GoogleBooks and PDF

The Product: Set up cartoons you can personalize to the people you're giving your presentation to for a magical effect. Captions are easy to personalize within PowerPoint, so you'll be up in no time, making entertaining and persuasive presentations.

The License: No membership required, just an annual fee of $25 for each cartoon you license for use in your PowerPoint presentations.

Alternatives: If you're using our personalized cartoons in your presentations, you're likely to see firsthand the sort of reaction they generate with your audience. And they could be doing the same thing in your marketing and sales promotion campaigns in e-Mail, Postcard or BigBoard form. If you're not ready to join one of our marketing programs, join our Members program to learn and stay informed. Buy Stu's book to learn more about how to use these programs.